More info about Bucks

As a member of the staff team you will be expected to be an ambassador for the students' union. In brief Bucks Students' Union is about making life better for students at Bucks:

The Union's objects are the advancement of education of Students at Bucks New University for the public benefit by:

promoting the interests and welfare of Students at Bucks New University during their course of study and representing, supporting and advising students; being the recognised representative channel between Students and Bucks New University and any other external bodies; and providing social, cultural, sporting and recreational activities and forums for discussions and debate for the personal development of its Students.

A brief overview of how we operate

The Students' Union is a charity with educational aims and objectives. It is governed by a board of trustees who look after senior strategic decisions plus the legal and financial matters arising from being a charity.

The key group to the strategic direction of the union are the elected student officers. This group comprises of 3 students who are elected to work full time (as a gap year or at the end of their degree) in ensuring the union is truly representative in what it does. As a membership driven organisation we are very close to and focused on, meeting the needs and aspirations of our members – the students of Bucks New University.

The union employs full time and part time staff who provide support and advice as well as ensuring operational responsibilities are carried out.

Bucks Students' Union is independent of the University, governed by a constitution approved by both the Student Body and the Board of Governors of the University.

Representation is considered the highest priority by the Union and one that makes all other services and operations facilitate. Internally, the executive committee makes the most of its unique position of representation on almost all University committees. Externally, the views of students at Bucks Students' Union are represented to the NUS and other bodies, both local and national, following research and consultation with our membership.

The union offers:

- entertainments
- free sports and activities
- societies
- co-ordination and support for course reps,
- training

- keeping reps up to date with university and education issues which they campaign on your behalf
- independent advice centre (the Advice Centre)
- awareness and issue campaigns
- freshers helpers scheme and the buddies mentoring scheme
- volunteering
- student newspaper

amongst many other things!

The Union operates a range of services across the two campuses of the University, employs 30 permanent staff and up to 60 student staff. It receives an annual block grant from the University to run sports, activities, advice and support plus funding a free entertainments package. The trading services breakeven to provide the best value service to the students, any surpluses get put straight back into enhancing the student experience.

The organisation has an annual turnover of around £2million.
